In the Social Realm

Society News.

Please phone all news items, society or otherwise, to the Tidings, No. 39. It is often necessary to leave late items over until the next issue, so as to insure insertion please phone them in as early as possible. The Tidings goes to press early each Monday and Thursday afternoon and items must be in and in type by noon if possible.

Miss Sylvia Brown returned Tuesday evening from a two weeks' visit with relatives at Vancouver, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Wallace, from Cottage Grove, have been guests at the Porter home on Woolen street for several days, returning home Wednesday evening.

Mrs. J. R. Burnette, Mrs. August Schuermann, Dr. Bertha Sawyer, Dr. Gail Kamerer and Misses Mary Dible, Lena Casey and Lydia McCall went to Medford Wednesday evening to see and hear John Mason at the Page Theatre. They report a pleasant trip though rather moist.

There is a jolly party in camp up at Colestin this week consisting of thirteen young people—the thirteenth being the chaperone. They are Mrs. Hal McNair, Misses Mary Williams of Kansas City, Ruth Shoudy, Ernestine Edwards, Elsie Harner, Doris Bagley, Pearl Wamsley and Messrs. Henry Enders, Leland Reeder, Carroll Wagner, Jack Hoch, Chester Tollman and Edgar Keimholz. They expect to remain until next Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. V. O. N. Smith entertained informally last Wednesday night in honor of their guests Mr. and Mrs. Howard H. Hayes of Ottawa, Kansas. Five hundred was the order of the evening and at the close of the game the hostess served a pretty luncheon in pink and white. The guest list numbered twenty-four and a very pleasant evening was spent. Mr. and Mrs. Hayes left on Friday for a trip through California before returning to their home.

Little Mary Virginia Hargadine celebrated her fourth birthday and Max Morrison his sixth last Sunday. With a number of their friends they were taken to the children's playground in the canyon and turned loose for the afternoon. There were eleven of them and to say that they had a good time is putting it lightly. They waded in the creek and played games and even fell head over heels into the water. In the early evening a big picnic lunch was served and the happy party broke up. Those present were Reggie Grisez, Richard Crowson, Eaton Foster, La Mar

Moyer, Wayne Moyer, Elbur Bush, Agnes Hedburg, Helen Moyer, Dorothy Wright, Max Morrison and Mary Virginia Hargadine. Their chaperones were Messrs. and Mesdames N. A. Morrison, S. B. McNair, J. R. Casey, G. G. Ogg, Mesdames Moyer, W. N. Wright, C. H. Hargadine and Miss Helene Casey.

Story-Telling.

Mrs. Louis Hilty will have something good for the children at the story-telling hour at the Carnegie library next Saturday afternoon. Hour as usual. All children are invited.

Rebekah and I. O. O. F. Picnic.

Members of Hope Rebekah lodge are going to have a picnic at Helman's baths on Tuesday, July 29, at 8 p. m. All Odd Fellows and Rebekahs and their families are requested to be present and bring well-filled baskets.

ELSIE REAMES,
Noble Grand.

Mrs. Walter Gorham entertained Saturday evening in a charming manner in honor of her sister, Miss Mattie Troop, of Portland, Ore. The guests were Mesdames W. Frulan, R. Hale, C. Shuttis, Murphy, W. Dodge, W. J. Wallace, and Misses Fern Murphy, Hall, Frances Hamlin, Cora Clift, Humphrey and Glyndon Scott. Five hundred was played and lovely refreshments were served. An innovation was the having an auto to bring the guests and return them to their homes, this being done through the kindness of Mr. Livingston.

Attended Parents' Golden Wedding.

The Eldora Iowa Herald gives the following account of the celebration of the sixtieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Whited which their son, H. L. Whited of Ashland—and his wife and daughters, Esther and Marjorie—attended:

"About twenty-five relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Whited were present at a delightful family reunion held at their home in east Eldora Sunday, July sixth. The occasion was an especially happy one, members of the family being present who had not met for many years. Those present from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Whited's sons, Willis Whited and wife and son Edmund and daughter Martha of Harrisburg Pennsylvania, and Harry Whited and wife and daughters Esther and Marjorie of Ashland Oregon, and Mr. Whited's brother George Whited from Constantine Michigan—whom he had not seen for forty years. Others present were their daughters Miss Myra Whited of Ames and Mrs.

MEDFORD GETS SCHOOL

Baptists Will Open College in Sister City in Near Future, Says Mail Tribune.

Medford Mail Tribune: A University of Southern Oregon, to include courses in medicine, law, horticulture and liberal arts, in which Medford and Rogue River Valley men will serve as instructors and lecturers, is the proposal of Dr. R. W. MacCullough, pastor of the Baptist church, and his son, who have recently come here from Pennsylvania to make their home.

ally for such an institution, but the plan would be to make it self-sustaining from the start. A small entrance fee would be charged and instructors and lecturers paid on the fee basis, says Dr. MacCullough.

"The project is yet in its infancy, but we have received a great deal of encouragement from leading business and professional men. The plan is that followed by many successful institutions, and almost universally used in building up the law and medical departments of universities."

The MacCulloughs, father and son, are busy interviewing citizens, and as a result there is every prospect

Rev. W. N. D. MacCullough, pastor of Ashland Baptist church, one of the founders of new Medford School.

The proposal is to build up from small beginnings a creditable modern university that will give practical results to home people and those elsewhere in southern Oregon. Some financial aid can be obtained nation-that success will crown their efforts. It is proposed to use a portion of the Medford Business College rooms, which can be secured at a nominal rent and will not interfere with the business college work.

C. E. Burling and family of this city, a nephew Wirt Whited of Waterloo, Walter Pritchard and wife of Garner, J. S. Pritchard and wife and Alexander McGregor of Belmont, E. B. Pritchard and wife and daughter and Mrs. L. E. Smith and Mrs. Kitty Catlin and two daughters all of Alden."

Another item in the Herald refers to the resignation of Mr. Whited from the library board with which he had been connected as member and librarian and president since 1878.

Carter-Phillips.

A simple but beautiful wedding, solemnized in the presence of 24 relatives and friends, took place Tuesday at high noon at the summer home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. H. S. Frye, on Lake Washington, near Seattle, when Miss Veta Phillips of this city and Mr. Fred Mortimer Carter of Ellensburg were united in marriage.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Ernest Vincent Shaylor in the living room under a bower of marguerites and soft foliage.

The bride and groom were unattended save by the little ring bearer, Anna Helen White, of Vancouver, B. C., a four-year-old cousin of the bride. She was dressed in white with pink hair bow and pink sash and carried the ring in the heart of a pink rose.

The bride was dainty in an imported gown of embroidered mull over white charmeuse and carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas.

Miss Mary Louise Rochester played the wedding march and preceded the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Phillips White sang, respectively, "O, Promise Me," and a group of French love songs.

Following the ceremony a luncheon was served on the broad veranda surrounding the home. The bridal table was decorated with a profusion of pink and white sweet peas. Smaller tables were used for the other guests. Each had for a centerpiece a basket of pink sweet peas.

Among the out of town relatives present at the ceremony were Mrs. G. T. White, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Phillips White of Vancouver, B. C., and Walter Phillips of Ashland, Ore. Mr. and Mrs. Carter left for a trip to Vancouver and Victoria, B. C., and will be at home after August 1 in Ellensburg.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Lena Phillips of Ashland, Ore., and was a former student at the University of Washington.

The groom is a graduate of Andover and Yale.

Two Women Killed When Bolt Strikes Clothesline.

During an electrical storm that swept northern Josephine county on Monday afternoon, Mrs. G. H. Eddy and Mrs. August Kausek of Leland were struck by a bolt of lightning and killed. The women were removing clothes from the clothesline attached to trees in the yard when the bolt struck one of the trees, following along the line at which the women were working. Mrs. Kausek was instantly killed and Mrs. Eddy died in fifteen minutes after being struck. Parties in the house a few feet from the tree that was struck were more or less shocked, but none was seriously injured.

The women were recent arrivals from Cleveland, Ohio, their husbands being officers of the Ohio-Oregon Land and Power Company, a corporation that was developing mining properties on Grave creek, a mile above Leland.

Death of Mrs. Joseph Smith.

Fannie Abbott Smith, widow of the late Joseph Smith, died Tuesday, July 22, 1913, after a brief illness. The deceased was born February 2, 1880, and had been for many years a resident of Ashland. The funeral was held at the residence of her father, J. N. Abbott, 875 Oak street, this afternoon at 2 o'clock, followed by interment in the Odd Fellows section of the Ashland cemetery. Mrs. Gus Edlund of Roseburg, Mrs. Jack Horton of Alkali Valley and Mrs. Della Walker of Bly, all sisters of the deceased, are here to attend the funeral. The bereaved relatives have the sympathy of the community.

Contract Let for Additional Rooms at Poor Farm.

At a special meeting of the county court Monday the contract was let for an addition to the county poor farm to be used for hospital purposes. The annex will contain eight rooms, 38x44 in size. Drew & Handy of Medford were awarded the contract for $1,383.

On Trial for Murder, Says He Saw Butcher Kill Himself.

San Francisco, July 22.—Taking the stand in his own defense, Walter Scott, a young butcher, on trial for the murder of his employer, Elbert Annand, today attempted to convince a jury that he saw Annand take his own life with a butcherknife.

"I stood in a back room," Scott said, "and saw Annand draw a knife across his throat. I fled from the building, as I feared I would be charged with his murder."

It may be natural for a woman to be fat, but it is unnatural for her to admit it.

Large rattlesnakes frequently bite before giving a warning rattle, contrary to general opinion.
